

Northern Rhode Island Board of REALTORS® Frequently Asked Questions & Answers Regarding 2018 Dues & Membership

1. Why am I not receiving a 2018 dues statement in the mail? Why did I receive an email instead?

Just like last year, we continue to post paperless invoices. All members were mailed a postcard advising them that their 2018 dues invoice had been posted on the portal. This presents opportunities to save costs, is environmentally friendly, streamlines the annual renewal process and aligns with the Department of Business Regulation's practice of paperless renewals to licensees. Renewing your dues online saves time and lowers our costs, allowing us to add value by redirecting savings and development time to other programs and services. Your payment gets credited to your account faster too! If you didn't save your username and password last year, look out for our 2 emails of 9/30/17.

2. Are the REALTOR® Dues the same as 2017?

Yes. And you are receiving your annual dues renewal the same time as last year (September 30th). Our members appreciate receiving their notification early on and our Bylaws (Article X, Section 3) do require the remittance of these dues in advance of the New Year. Updates regarding annual dues are posted on the Board's calendar and on the Member News page of (www.nribr.realtor) throughout the year, so be sure to read those.

3. When are the dues due and how can I pay them?

They are due 10/31/17 in accordance with our Bylaws. They must be paid through the member portal on www.nribr.realtor. Use the directions, including the username and password, emailed to you on 9/30/17. We accept Visa and MasterCard. Our offices are open Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. We can assist you with logging in if you will stop by our office (2178 Mendon Road, Suite 400, Cumberland, RI). We also have a secure silver mailbox to the left of our door, internal to the building. All checks will be deposited electronically.

4. I am having difficulty logging into the member portal. Now what?

Please be sure you are on www.nribr.realtor and clicking on member login. Make sure you are using the following browsers: Internet Explorer 9 or higher, Mozilla Firefox (current version on PC or Mac), Safari (current version), Google Chrome (current version on PC or Mac). The site is sensitive to errors, so if you have guessed your username and/or password or made an error entering them, you must delete the cookies/history on your web browser, then close out the web browser, relaunch the web browser and try again.

5. I can't find the 2 emails you sent me on 9/30/17 with my username and password. Now what?

Please check your spam folder. Always keep us apprised of your latest email address and add nribr@nribr.realtor as a safe sender to your email program. If you still cannot find your username and password, please call (401) 333-6343 or email nribr@nribr.realtor. All calls will be answered between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. Monday – Friday. You will be asked verification questions.

6. Can I pay my dues on www.nar.realtor? No – only on the member portal on www.nribr.realtor.

7. Can you pay my dues on the member portal of www.nribr.realtor if I give you my credit card information?

No. The system is secure and is configured to give our members access to their profiles and pay their account balances directly themselves by the due date. Please use the directions emailed to you on 9/30/17. Always save your usernames and passwords in a secure location for future reference.

8. If I pay my dues on the member portal of www.nribr.realtor, do I receive a receipt?

Yes. At the conclusion of your transaction, you will receive a confirmation that your card has been successfully charged. You may save the message as a PDF or print it as proof of payment. Your dues are, in part, a tax-deductible expense related to the cost of doing business.

9. My current membership dues are paid through 12/31/17. Why do I have to pay my 2018 dues now?

We value our partnership with you and look forward to assisting you achieve your professional goals this coming year. The Board has its own goals to meet including an efficient administrative dues process that is both fair and equitable. Our Bylaws state that members' dues are payable IN ADVANCE by 11/1. Please be mindful that the NRIBR is responsible for billing and collecting Local, State and National dues. We must then forward the State and National portions to these Associations and have internal deadlines to meet.

10. Do you have a payment plan?

No. The dues must be paid in full at time of payment. The Board accepts Visa and Mastercard. You may set up a Dues Savings Plan with the REALTORS® Federal Credit Union to help you prepare for your dues and other business expenses. To learn more about that, please click here.

11. On my renewal, I see NRIBR, RIAR, NAR and RPAC. What do these acronyms stand for?

(NRIBR) Northern Rhode Island Board of REALTORS®, (RIAR) RI Association of REALTORS®, (NAR) National Association of REALTORS® and (RPAC) REALTORS® Political Action Committee.

OVER

12. What does NRDS stand for?

National REALTOR® Database System. Your NRDS number is your unique membership identification number linked to your membership records with the Northern Rhode Island Board of REALTORS®, Rhode Island Association of REALTORS® and National Association of REALTORS®. It is not your Statewide MLS identification number.

13. What is the REALTOR® Public Awareness Campaign?

The NAR Public Awareness Campaign is a national advertising and public relations program which promotes recognition of the REALTOR® brand; informs the public about the advantages of working with a REALTOR®, educates consumers about the REALTOR® Code of Ethics and the professional standards REALTORS® are bound to uphold. The program, now in its 17th year, includes radio, television and print advertisements. For more information go to: <https://www.nar.realtor/consumer-advertising-campaign>

14. What do I get for the dues I pay?

Although the dues statement is posted by the Northern Rhode Island Board of REALTORS®, you are being invoiced for 3 annual memberships: one in the Northern Rhode Island Board, one in the RI Association of REALTORS® and another in the National Association of REALTORS®. You receive many services and resources from these 3 associations valued at a greater cost than your annual dues. For more on the services provided, check this out.

15. I mailed you a check for my dues. How will I know you received it?

Log into the member portal of www.nribr.realtor to see if you have an outstanding 2018 dues order.

16. My manager told me I must become a member of the Board. Can he/she require this?

Yes. Although antitrust law prohibits the Board from imposing a rule or policy that requires a licensee to hold membership in the Board, a Principal Broker and/or Chief Appraiser may require licensees who work for his/her firm to hold membership in the Board as a condition of association with the company. Many managers include this requirement as part of their written independent contractor agreements.

17. I do not wish to continue as a member of the Board and have notified my Principal Broker and/or Chief Appraiser. I will continue to be a licensee of his office but won't be a REALTOR®. What impact does this have on him and his office?

Under NAR's membership dues formula, the Designated REALTOR® (Principal Broker and/or Chief Appraiser) pays dues based on his/her membership plus an assessment for each licensee that is employed by or associated with the firm who is not a member of the Board. Therefore, he/she will receive a non-member dues invoice for you as his licensee and he/she will be required to pay this fee. Further, the membership dues formula allows him/her to seek a reimbursement from you for this expense. See the Bylaw provision here.

18. My Designated REALTOR® (which is the Principal Broker and/or Chief Appraiser of the office) does not plan to renew his/her membership. Does this affect my membership in the Board?

Yes the Principal of the firm must hold REALTOR® membership in the Board in order for sales, broker or appraisal licensees who are associated with the firm to hold membership.

19. Are dues refundable?

No. If you know that you will not be continuing to practice as a real estate or appraisal licensee in 2018 or are transferring to a non-REALTOR® office, please notify the Board immediately in writing. Send an email to nribr@nribr.realtor.

20. I recently became a new member and paid dues at that time. Wasn't that for 12 months from date of application?

When you joined earlier this year, you paid prorated dues based on the date your license became affiliated with the office you are with. You also paid a new member application fee. The dues and application fee were for 2017. Your 2018 renewal represents your membership dues for 1/1/18 – 12/31/18 and are payable in advance per the Board's Bylaws, Article X, Section 3.

21. I am a licensed assistant and do not actively list, sell or appraise. Am I still required to pay dues?

When your Designated REALTOR® (Principal Broker and/or Chief Appraiser) joined the REALTOR® Association, he/she agreed that all licensees would be invited to join as well. There are no exceptions for licensed assistants.

22. I only work part-time and will be out of state for several months this year. Can I pay prorated dues?

Membership is based on the real estate or appraisal licensees who hang their license in a member office. While you may not be practicing for a certain period of time, if your license remains in an active status in a member office, the full annual membership dues amount applies.

23. I may be transferring to another office soon. Do I still have to pay dues?

Yes. If you are transferring from one NRIBR office to another, your membership dues are transferable if the new office you are joining belongs to NRIBR. You can search our membership directory on www.nribr.realtor on the member portal. If you are transferring to an office that is a member of another Rhode Island REALTOR® Board, typically only the State and National portions of your dues will be transferable. Note that your membership and dues cannot be transferred to a non-REALTOR® office.
